SPEAKER ♦ COACH

Luke Wright is the catalyst that brings about the required change needed for success. With energy and home hitting stories that resonate with his audiences he instantly builds a connection. With that connection Luke is able to take his audience where they already wanted to go, but may have struggled in doing so alone. His strong focus on pursuing ones passion and purpose and disabling excuses enables him to empower individuals who then become more effective participants and contributors to their groups and organizations.

Luke Wright is a certified John Maxwell Team member, trained to provide coaching and speaking using JMT leadership philosophies and strategies.
